Lyke Wake Walk – Terms and Conditions

1. Fitness and Responsibility

- The Lyke Wake Walk is a challenging route. Participants are responsible for ensuring they are physically fit and capable of completing the walk.
- If you have any medical conditions that might affect your participation, please inform Kathy (walk leader) prior to the walk.
- Walks are undertaken at your own risk. The organiser accepts no liability for injury, loss, or damage to personal property.

2. Equipment and Kit

- All participants must check and follow the kit list provided before the walk.
- Proper footwear, weather-appropriate clothing, and sufficient food and water are essential.
- The organiser reserves the right to refuse participation if a walker is not suitably equipped.

3. Weather and Safety

- Walks may be postponed, shortened, or cancelled due to unsafe weather conditions or unforeseen circumstances.
- Safety decisions will be made at the organiser's discretion and must be respected by all participants.

4. Conduct

- Participants are expected to behave respectfully toward others and the environment.
- Littering, disruptive behaviour, or disregard for instructions may result in removal from the walk without refund.

6. Cancellations and Changes

- If the organiser cancels an event, participants will be offered a rescheduled date or full refund.

5. Fundraising Commitment

As a small independent charity, we rely on the generous efforts of our participants to help us continue our work. By registering for this event, participants agree to make every reasonable effort to reach or exceed the suggested fundraising target.
